A Shared Journey

Class Locations

at the University of Portsmouth campus

- We contact students with specific classroom locations no later than one week before each class meets, but this term, most of our classes will be held at the University Learning Centre (ULC) or the Park Building (PK), both on the University of Portsmouth Campus.
- If you change your email address or phone number, remember to let us know. 😊
- Monday classes are online on Zoom. We will send the codes no later than one week before each class meets.
- This term, our classes are spread out across the campus more than they usually are. The University's room booking team have tried their best, but we are competing with University classes on a campus with lots of building work and renovation going on. Please be patient. We will do our best to send you clear information to help you find your classrooms.

University Learning Centre (ULC) PO1 2DH

ULC faces Winston Churchill Avenue, with rear access along Alec Rose Lane. Its postcode is PO1 2DH.

The building used to be the Highbury City Centre campus (as seen in these pictures). Even though the building is now called University Learning Centre, the sign near the roof still reads 'City of Portsmouth Centre.'

- You can also reach the building from Queen Street, if you follow St. James Street alongside the John Pounds Centre. Stay on the left side and look for University signage. Turn left when you see a sign for the Richmond Building posted on a black brick wall.
